

Please do not limit Satellite Radio from broadcasting important information to the public. I travel over the road and use the information almost daily. Traveling in most of the lower states from city to city, it is difficult to find local information, XM offers the information and I can receive the information several hundreds of miles prior to my arrival in that area. Both weather and traffic allow me to make my plans before I get there.